Dear Librarians, Teachers, Principals, Parents and other Colleagues:

I cordially invite your students to participate in Letters About Literature, sponsored by the New Mexico State Library in cooperation with The Center for the Book at the Library of Congress and Dollar General Literacy Foundation. Letters About Literature is a writing contest designed to promote reading and thoughtful writing by encouraging young readers to read a book and then write a letter to the author explaining how his or her work shaped their perspective on the world or themselves. This is the fifth year New Mexico State Library has sponsored the competition.

Readers in grades 4-12 write a personal letter to an author describing their personal reaction to a book, story, or poem. Students may write about works of fiction or nonfiction. Entries in Spanish will be accepted and translated for the New Mexico judges. State judges will select the top letter writers in New Mexico, who then advance to the national competition.

Letter writers compete at three levels: Level I is grades 4-6; Level II is grades 7-8; and Level III is grades 9-12. The one winning letter from each level from each state is entered into the final national competition. There will be cash prizes for the three state winners and also for the national winners.

Please see the Letters About Literature participation guidelines and the entry form on the next page.
Level 3 entries must be postmarked by December 2, 2016.
Level 1 and 2 entries must be postmarked by January 9, 2017.

The entry form is for teachers or librarians submitting class or group entries, as well as for individual students who prefer to enter separately on their own. Individual entries are signed by a parent or guardian rather than a teacher or a librarian.

If you have any questions, please feel free to call me at 505-476-9717.

I look forward to working with you and truly hope you will participate in the New Mexico Letters About Literature contest.

How did an author's work change your view of the world or yourself?

How to Enter

Read

Select a fiction or nonfiction book, a poem or play you have read and about which you have strong feelings. (Sorry, no song lyrics!) It might be a book that helped you through a difficult time or it might be a book that simply touched your heart or inspired you.

Reflect

Think before you write. How did this author’s work change you or your view of the world? How do you know it did? How and why are you different now than you were before you read this work?

Persuade

Write a personal letter to the author, stating how reading his or her work changed you. Be personal but also persuasive! Support your ideas with specific details, including details from the work itself. This is not a fan letter but rather a reflection on how an author influenced you.

Write

Type your entry in letter format — do not send handwritten letters. Your name and complete return address (either school or home) must appear in the upper right corner of the first page of the letter.

Send

Mail your letter with the required entry coupon by the deadline date.

Need some tips to get started? No sure how to write a personal letter? Visit read.gov/letters to read winning letters from past competitions and to access the Letters About Literature Teaching Guide.

HOW TO SUBMIT YOUR LETTERS AND ENTRY COUPON

Entry Coupon. Each letter must be accompanied by an entry coupon. Staple the coupon to the last page of the letter. Affiliate Centers for the Book will contact State Winners using this information, so be sure entry coupons are complete and legible. Letters without a coupon will be eliminated.

Class Set of Letters. Teachers must submit their name and contact information with a list of the names of each student submitting a letter. This list does not take the place of entry coupons.

Friendly Tips/Notes:

1. Please put your name or ID# on the white order sheets when sending them back to us with your books. These sheets can get mixed up with other orders when we are emptying bags and if there is no name, it is hard to match up the order with the books. If there is a name on it, you are sure to get your order.

2. If you have several mailing bags with only a few books in each coming back to us, you can put all books and any extra bags into the bigger bag and mail to us. This will save on postage.

3. Please do not send empty mailing bags through the mail as each one is a minimum charge of $2.87 per bag. This will also save on postage. If you just have a slip of paper with your order in the bag, we suggest calling us toll free or email us to place your order.
