ADV  The Emperor's revenge
Cussler, Clive  BL-4253
When a bank heist during the Monaco Grand Prix decimates the Corporation's "offshore" account, Juan Cabrillo and the crew of the Oregon find themselves unexpectedly vulnerable. Without his usual financial assets, Juan must trust a woman from his past, an old friend from his days with the CIA, to help him keep his team safe. Together, they'll face a mysterious hacker with a brutal vendetta.

ADV  The eye of minds
Dashner, James  BL-4282
The first book in "The Mortality Doctrine" series, an edge-of-your-seat adventure that takes you into a world of hyper-advanced technology, cyber terrorists, and gaming beyond your wildest dreams, and your worst nightmares.

ADV  The game of lives
Dashner, James  BL-4040
The VirtNet has become a world of deadly consequences, and Kaine grows stronger by the day. If Kaine succeeds, it will mean worldwide cyber domination. And it looks like Michael and his friends are the only ones who can put the monster back in the box, if Michael can figure out who his friends really are.

ADV  The rule of thoughts
Dashner, James  BL-4039
Michael completed the Path, and the truth he discovered about Kaine is more complex, and more terrifying, than anyone at VirtNet Security could have anticipated. Kaine is a Tangent, a computer program that has become sentient. And Michael's completing the Path was the first stage in turning Kaine's master plan, the Mortality Doctrine, into a reality. The Mortality Doctrine will populate Earth entirely with human bodies harboring Tangent minds. Any gamer who sinks into the VirtNet risks coming out with a Tangent intelligence in control of their body. The VNS would rather pretend the world is perfectly safe, but Michael and his friends know that the takeover has already begun. And if they don't stop Kaine soon, it will be game over for humanity.

ADV  Wonder Woman
Holder, Nancy  BL-4126
An official novelization of the much anticipated movie follows unconquerable warrior Diana, princess of the Amazons, as she, after an American pilot crashes on their shores and tells of a war raging in the outside world, leaves her home to stop the threat and fulfill her destiny.

BIO  Lab girl
Jahren, Hope  LP-5028
LARGE PRINT. Acclaimed scientist Hope Jahren has built three laboratories in which she's studied trees, flowers, seeds, and soil. Her first book might have been a revelatory treatise on plant life. Lab Girl is that, but it is also so much more. Because in it, Jahren also shares with us her inspiring life story, in prose that takes your breath away.

BIO  Finding Gobi
Leonard, Dion  BL-4050
While racing through the Gobi Desert in China and Mongolia, the author, a seasoned ultra-marathoner, encounters a stray dog who, keeping pace with him for nearly 80 miles, gives him a new perspective on life, causing him to fight to bring her home with him with the help of strangers and a viral outpouring of assistance on the internet.

BIO  American ghost
Nordhaus, Hannah  BL-4257
La Posada, place of rest, was once a grand Santa Fe mansion. It belonged to Abraham and Julia Staab, who emigrated from Germany in the mid-nineteenth century. After they died, the house became a hotel. And in the 1970s, the hotel acquired a resident ghost, a sad, dark-eyed woman in a long gown. Strange things began to happen there: vases moved, glasses flew, blankets were ripped from beds. Julia Staab died in 1896, but her ghost, they say, lives on. In American Ghost, Julia's great-great-granddaughter, Hannah Nordhaus, traces her ancestor's transfiguration from nineteenth-century Jewish bride to modern phantom.

BIO  I am Malala
Yousafzai, Malala  LP-5018
LARGE PRINT. When the Taliban took control of the Swat Valley in Pakistan, one girl spoke out. Malala Yousafzai refused to be silenced and fought for her right to an education. On Tuesday, October 9, 2012, when she was fifteen, she almost paid the ultimate price. She was shot in the head at point-blank range while riding the bus home from school, and few expected her to survive. Instead, Malala's miraculous recovery has taken her on an extraordinary journey from a remote valley in northern Pakistan to the halls of the United Nations in New York. At sixteen, she has become a global symbol of peaceful protest and the youngest nominee ever for the Nobel Peace Prize.

It was always difficult being Harry Potter and it isn't much easier now that he is an overworked employee of the Ministry of Magic, a husband and father of three school-age children. While Harry grapples with a past that refuses to stay where it belongs, his youngest son Albus must struggle with the weight of a family legacy he never wanted. As past and present fuse ominously, both father and son learn the uncomfortable truth: sometimes, darkness comes from unexpected places.

Broken glass
Andrews, V. C.  BL-4196
The haunting saga of identical twin sisters tortured by their perfectionist mother, until one of them snaps. Haylee and Kaylee Fitzgerald are twin sisters who have been forced to be identical in every way by their domineering mother. She insists they wear the same clothes, eat the same food, get the same grades, and have all the same friends. But both are growing weary of her obsession with their similarities, so when they finally attend high school, they find little ways to highlight their independence. The transition isn't as easy as expected, however, and soon both sisters are thrust into a world that their mother never prepared them for, a world with far more dangerous consequences than just upsetting Mother. (Mirror Sisters No. 1 (BL-2127)).

Return to Huckleberry Hill
Beckstrand, Jennifer  BL-4080

Sparks, Nicholas  BL-4067
At 32, Russell Green has it all: a stunning wife, a lovable six-year-old daughter, a successful career as an advertising executive and an expansive home in Charlotte. But underneath the shiny surface of this perfect existence, fault lines are beginning to appear, and no one is more surprised than Russ when he finds every aspect of the life he took for granted turned upside down. In a matter of months, Russ finds himself without a job or wife, caring for his young daughter while struggling to adapt to a new and baffling reality. Throwing himself into the wilderness of single parenting, Russ embarks on a journey at once terrifying and rewarding-one that will test his abilities and his emotional resources beyond anything he ever imagined.
Pennsylvania, tangled in a web of deception. Within a few days, Charlotte is back in Paradise, she's forced to put aside her own worries to help her Amish friend. When a surprise visitor shows up on her doorstep in Texas, word that the man who killed her father has discovered where she lives, and flees town to continue her courtship with Amos in order to find out what happened to her only brother, she doesn't anticipate a growing friendship with a quiet Amish man named Isaac Miller.

A young woman, Grace, who is having a long-distance relationship over the telegraph lines with the shy Amos, receives word that the man who killed her father has discovered where she lives, and flees town to continue her courtship with Amos in person.

Charlotte returns to her friends in Paradise, Pennsylvania, this time with a very different mission in mind. Englischer Charlotte Dolinsky makes plans to visit her friends in Lancaster County, hoping to heal from a recent break-up with her boyfriend, Ryan. Territory of New Mexico, 1875. Archbishop Jean-Baptiste Lamy needs money to complete the new cathedral he's building in Santa Fe. He comes to see Father Clement Grantaire, pastor of a small parish near the Texas border, for help. Father Grantaire has a checkered past, but he also has an idea: he can use his less-than-priestly gambling skills to obtain money for the cathedral.
Newt Jones, aka the Widowmaker, is ready to put his gunslinging days behind him until he gets word that a renegade tribe has kidnapped his friend's grandson and sets out to save the boy despite being outnumbered, outgunned and probably out of his mind.

When the past comes back with a vengeance, the Scout Trackers, a group of men who distinguished themselves with uncommon valor in the brutal Geronimo Campaign, are reunited and must enforce their fearless brand of justice from Montana all the way to the Arizona Territory.

When his family is ambushed by a gang of cutthroats on the Oregon Trail, 15-year-old Tim Colter, who managed to escape, embarks on a dangerous journey across a lawless frontier to save his sisters and, along the way, finds an ally in a grizzled one-eyed trapper who joins him on his mission of vengeance.

Kate Kerrigan and her family come to the rescue of rainmaker/swindler Professor Somerset Lazarus who is the target of an angry horde before the bullets start to fly since these unsatisfied costumers want more than a refund, they want blood.

No ordinary bounty hunter, Sam Flintlock, in search of food, work and lodging, ends up in the high timber country east of the Mogollon River where a young heiress offers to pay him cold, hard cash if he stays a full week in the gothic mansion of her murdered uncle, which is rumored to be haunted.

When he garners the wrath of the deadliest, lowlife killers west of the Mississippi, U.S. Deputy Marshal Will Tanner becomes a moving target on a blood-soaked trail of revenge where he must keep his finger on the trigger at all times.

While back on the trail, Breck Wallace, exiled from the Smoky Mountains for gunning down a man in self defense, must evade a vicious gang of trappers who are after his goods and who force him to ride deeper into the mountains that he has ever gone.
